	https://govstatus.egov.com/or-dhs-not-alone. Gordon Clay wanted to be sure we all know about the 24/7 crisis text line, 741741, which is not included on the State’s list of resources. Pamela Huntley with Advanced Health (AH) mentioned that AH would be forming an Advisory Committee in Curry County that would support their wrap-around program. For more information, contact: pamela.huntley@advancedhealth.com.
5.0 Intensive Care Coordinatio n	Ross Acker, Director of Care Coordination for Advanced Health provided an update on the Intensive Care Coordination plan for members in Curry County. Ross provided us with an update of the Activate Care platform (app) that will be used to track coordinated care services for our members- physical, mental and dental health records all in one. Ross and his team in Curry are available to assist members who need an extra level of support and care. For more information, contact ross.acker@advancedhealth.com.
6.0 Community Partner Updates	Mellissah Hendrickson from SCBEC mentioned that truck driver on the job training is still available and that those who go through the program have work available to them upon completion, and there are funds available for anyone impacted by COVID. Contact mhendrickson@scbec.org for more information. Corrine Potts mentioned that Curry County only has a Census response rate of 48%, which will effect funding. Jen Shafer with United Way of SW Oregon mentioned that they will have monthly COVID relief funding available and to visit their website for more information: https://unitedwayswo.org/emergency-relief-fund/ Sharon Daymond mentioned that we are doing a good job of containing COVID in Curry County, but she wondered if there were local funds to support community businesses and organizations. Jen Shafer spoke to their emergency relief funds that were available, as well as those from Curry Health Foundation and AllCare Health. Laura Williams announced that there would be a virtual Out of the Darkness walk to promote suicide awareness on Sept. 12th from 10-11 am.
